PROGRAM SPONSOR

Alpha Exchange

Alpha Exchange leads school-based, homestay travel programs between American and Chinese high schools, bridging the gap between commercial tours and long-term exchange programs. With a network of more than 150 public and private high schools in China, they have established over 20 two-way programs across 16 American high schools since 2015 and look forward to facilitating new partnerships through this initiative with Primary Source.

Primary Source

Primary Source is a 29-year-old non-profit organization that works to advance global education in schools. Through in-depth courses, teaching materials, custom workshops and international travel, we help K-12 educators gain the knowledge and tools they need to prepare students to thrive in today’s interconnected world.
